TALK IS CHEAP.—And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes, and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody I treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State.
Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into these humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods forms one of my specialties. Remember the place. The White House, No. 19,

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes a small particle of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky blue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance.

There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of Seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genital urinary organs.

NOTES.

Well, well. Even Sutor.

Bell Isle will, it is said, on the 15th, pay a dividend of 50 cents per share. This is a new Tascara mine.

Judge Currier of Belmont, in a published card, denies that he received a bribe of $1000, as charged by the Tybo Sun, and has commenced criminal and civil proceedings to vindicate himself.

Tilden is going to Georgia to put a bar'l or two under them fences of his'n.

The New York Yellow Fever Commission has arrived in Havana, whither they went to inquire into the infantile habits of the monster. Meanwhile Yellow Jack is creeping up the coast.

CALIFORNIA PRESS ASSOCIATION.—The California Press Association has concluded to defer its meeting from the 16th of July to October 8th. This is done so that all the editors may have an opportunity to attend the meeting unembarrassed by the duties of attending to election and other matters, which would press heavily until after election.

SITTING BULL'S STORY.

Father Genin, a priest, who has spent ten years of his life among the Indian tribes of the Northwest—notably that portion of the great Sioux nation governed by Sitting Bull—has been interviewed. Some remarkable statements are made by him concerning Sitting Bull's version of the Rosebud fight where General Custer and his men died together. According to the Indian side of the story Sitting Bull believed that Custer had orders to exterminate his tribe, and that while endeavoring to escape he sent a warrior with a flag of truce to Custer. The Indian chieftain says that this man was shot down; so calling upon the Great Spirit to witness that he was not responsible for the bloodshed to follow he surrounded the troops and destroyed them. We also gain an insight to the Sioux character when we learn that the reason why they sent a squaw to receive and listen to General Terry at Fort Walsh, was because of their contempt for double dealing, holding that as that officer represented a government which never kept its promises a woman was good enough to receive its ambassador. Judging from the statements made by the missionary Sitting Bull holds the United States government in sovereign contempt, and the facts show how necessary it is that our Indian policy be based on fair dealing and honest observance of treaties. How can we expect the red man to keep his promises when we fail to keep our own?

The manifesto brought by Father Genin from Sitting Bull contains, in brief, the story of his people's wrongs ever since the ratification of the treaty of 1868, showing that none of its promises have been kept, and protesting that, although his people have been anxious for peace, they have been bounded from place to place by the soldiers of the Great Father. He asks for his lands, or so much of them as will support his people, and wants the protection of the "people" as distinguished from the soldiers.

HORSE-WHIPPING.

The Carson Appeal of the 9th says: A little before lunch time yesterday a lady, very closely veiled, entered one of the numerous offices in this city, where two gentlemen were in close confab, and without any preliminary remarks, drew a cowhide from under her dress with an evident determination to castigate one of the men. As her arm descended with a powerful swoop which made the cowhide whistle, it was caught by the disinterested party, who made an attempt to wrest the whip from her hands. She made a strong and determined resistance, without, strange to say, uttering a word. At length, however, she was disarmed, and then followed an excited explanation on the part of the infuriated woman. She claimed that the proprietor of the office, whose name, for his family's sake, shall be suppressed in these columns, had slandered her. He is said to have accused her of leading an unchaste life, which came near effecting a separation between herself and husband. She resides at Virginia City and has two children. The exasperated woman says that the frustration of her purpose to chastise her villifier will not deter her from consummating her desire in this particular in the future.

THE LATE SESSION OF CONGRESS.

REASONS FOR REJOICING.

[From the Troy (N. Y.) Whig—Rep.] With Congress adjourned and the Fourth of July so close at hand the American citizen surely has great cause to rejoice.

THE LAST STRAW.

[From the Philadelphia Ledger—Ind.] It was engaged in mischief to the very last of its troublous hours—its final work being the removal of the duty on quinine.

A DEMOCRATIC QUATRE BRAS.

[From the Buffalo (N. Y.) Express—Rep.] Altogether, it is not a great record—this of the extra session. It is the Democratic Quatre Bras—the skirmish preceding its Waterloo.

NO STAIN ON IT.

[From the Buffalo Courier—Dem.] There is no stain on the late session. For the failure of Congress to modify obnoxious laws the President and his party, and not majority, are responsible.

ONLY THE MARSHALS DISAPPOINTED.

[From the Hartford (Conn.) Courant—Rep.] Congress has adjourned. This fact will give satisfaction to the country that it will be disposed to overlook the fact that the United States marshals are left without pay.

MR. HAYES BELIEVED.

[From the Washington (D. C.) Post—con.] The adjournment of Congress lifts a heavy weight from the long depressed spirits of Mr. Hayes. A man in the possession of stolen goods can never feel quite at ease while the agent or the owners are around in large numbers.

SAD, BUT TRUE.

[From the Baltimore Gazette—Ind. Dem.] We may remark that Congress adjourned since die, and that the solemn state of affairs which Mr. Hayes alleged to be true on Monday may be said to be equally true to-day. In fine, the poor marshals are still unprovided for.

A WISE PRECAUTION.

[From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican—Ind. Rep.] Congress has adjourned at last—left the marshals and deputy marshals without an appropriation, passed the Quinine bill and adjourned. There was a dash of sense in thus reducing the price of the standard tonic. The majority will be sadly in need of it.

A VERY SMALL TROPHY.

[From the Providence Journal—Rep.] Congress has finally adjourned. The Democrats, who opened the extra session with noisy declarations that they would repeal all the war legislation, retire with a very small trophy—a crippled judicial service, resulting chiefly in the impunity of law-breakers in the South.

AN END OF MISCHIEF MAKING.

[From the Philadelphia Press—Rep.] Never since free government began has there been a more studied defiance and disregard on the part of the majority of the accepted rules of "fair play" than this Congress has shown, and that it is, for a time, out of the sight of the people and incapable of continued mischief making is a source of much gratification.

A DEMOCRATIC SURRENDER.

[From the Brooklyn Union—Rep.] The first session of the Forty-sixth Congress, is at an end. It can hardly be said to be an adjournment. Congress has coiled out, subsided, dropped away, as it were, "as dies a wave along the shore." The ignoble termination of this career is in singular contrast with the arrogant swash-buckler style in which the session commenced.

WHAT HAS BEEN GAINED.

[From the Boston Post—Dem.] The first session of the Forty-sixth Congress has ended. In spite of the reckless demagogues who have led the obstructionists and procured vetoes from the President, the Democrats have obtained the passage of laws which will prevent the use of troops and deputy marshals at the polls during the coming year and give the people of the Southern States impartial jurors.

USELESS, TIRESOME AND EXASPERATING.

[From the Boston Globe—Dem.] Congress adjourned yesterday afternoon, and the feeling of gratification at the relief will be general. The contest in which the legislative and executive branches of the Government have been engaged has been useless, tiresome and exasperating. Had Congress adjourned at once after the first series of vetoes was received much expense would not have been wasted and the result would not have been vastly different from that which is now reached.

WIDER APART THAN EVER.

[From the Baltimore American—Rep.] The Democratic party came out of the last campaign with the prestige of success in the election by the people, but what political capital it had left after the Potter Committee got through its operations this extra session has lost it. In every way its plans have failed. Instead of bringing forward new issues which would unite the party and keep differences on financial policy in the background the close of the session found the gulf between the hard and soft money factions wider than ever.

RESULT OF DEMOCRATIC STRATEGY.

[From the Worcester (Mass.) Spy—Rep.] The whole expense and turmoil of the extra session have been incurred for nothing, and the political result is the consolidation of the Republican party everywhere, Democratic dissension and defection and the conceded defeat of that party in every State hitherto considered doubtful. This is the result of Democratic strategy. Dr. Franklin's parable of the statesman who knew how to make a great State smaller might be told of the Democratic leaders, who have developed a remarkable capacity for making a party smaller and weaker.

A DEMOCRATIC CANAAN.

[From the Newark (N. J.) Journal—Dem.] In the extra session the Democrats reached the promised land for which they had so long, so bravely and so heroically struggled, amid successive storms of calumny, slander, gross misrepresentation and shameless misuse of power on the part of the opposition. The House was Democratic, the Senate was Democratic. Truth, crushed to earth so long, had risen, grandly risen, while error writhed and died among his worshippers. If for no other reason than this fact of the restoration of Democratic supremacy in the councils of the nation the extra session of the Forty-sixth Congress would live forever in American political history.

A STALWART REPUBLICAN VIEW.

[From the Boston Journal—Rep.] If in three months a Democratic Congress has revived and pushed to the front the State rights heresies; if it has assailed the constitutional powers of the Executive and undertaken to deprive him of them; if it has nullified a portion of the most important laws on the Statute book and taken from the Executive the means of enforcing all the laws where the services of marshals are required—to what extent may not the laws be subverted, the Constitution trodden under foot and the results of a long and costly war to maintain a national union be thrown away should every branch of the Federal Government fall into the hands of the Democratic leaders?

SWEEPING AWAY THE WAR LEGISLATION.

[From the Baltimore Sun—Ind. Dem.] In the late sessions of the very hallings and delays, the apparent vacillation, and the slowness and deliberation with which the issues have been shaped and put, however trying to the public patience and exasperating to the newspaper correspondents and readers, are illustrations in their way of the strength of our institutions and of the inherent capacity of our people for self-government. Nor are the results themselves in the end to be lightly estimated and despised. All the legislation which the majority in Congress have been seeking to repeal—every particle of it—is a robe of the arbitrary and oppressive rule which prevailed for some years after the war between the States.

GRATEFUL TO ALL.

[From the Philadelphia Times—Ind.] All that has been done after nearly four months of political wrangling at Washington and general unrest throughout the country could have been better done in a fortnight, and with infinite credit to all parties and all branches of power; but Democratic coercion begot Republican coercion; Republican coercion begot Executive coercion; and when the Democratic leaders were glad to retrace their steps and reform their lines within the proper limits of patriotism and just deference of the Executive prerogative, the Republican revolutionary leaders had been made masters of their party and their President, and partisan passion and trickery and violence ran riot even in the first councils of the Republic. After so much wrong to a suffering country from the Executive and both parties in Congress it is a grateful day to all that records the departure of Congressmen to their homes, where they may breathe again the tranquillizing atmosphere that seems to be unknown in Washington.

The Eureka Leader says: It may be a matter of interest to our readers to know the number of men employed by the principal companies of this district, and upon reliable information, furnished by the superintendents and managers, we have drawn up the following result: Richmond, 200 miners, 100 smelters and 100 refiners; Eureka Consolidated, 218 miners and 82 smelters; Jackson, 45 miners; Phoenix, 40 miners; K. K. Consolidated, 35; Albion, 34; Wales Consolidated, 15; Kit Carson, 10; Hamburg, 7; Fourth of July, 6; Eureka tunnel 6; Prospect Mountain tunnel, 6; small and unincorporated mines, 250; making a grand total of those employed in mining enterprises amounting to 1,159 men.

Secretary Burch, of the Senate is stopping Republican papers and ordering Southern Democratic dailies.

Said to Recover.

A. Raphael has brought suit against the Central Pacific Railroad for $1,400, the value of a lot of goods destroyed in the big fire, and for the loss of which the Company is believed to be responsible.

Work on the Convent continues. A force of workmen are constantly employed. The three-story porch is about completed. Much remains to be done before the building will be finished, but the Sisters are pushing ahead with all speed, and hope soon to be able to occupy it all.

Conductor Dave Willard is once more at his post on the lightning train, after a vacation of sixty days. Mr. Willard is one of the most popular conductors in the employ of the Central Pacific, and we are glad to see him resume his station.

Yesterday morning a platform for the Wells, Fargo boys arrived from below bearing this legend: "A good sound iron bound Jackson hemp handled Democratic Platform." Dick Smith has pre-empted a quarter section.

Complaint is made that the JOURNAL is stolen from doorsteps and out of the boxes placed for them. This is annoying to the subscribers and to us. We would like to catch a culprit once.

The card of D. H. Barker and D. B. Merry, both practical surveyors, appears to-day. They are reliable and competent civil engineers.

The town was very quiet yesterday. There was hardly anything going on except rent and interest.

Wood is offered here, on the track, at $4 50 a cord, per car load. A pretty cheap rate.

Drunkard Indians continued to afflict Reno. The tar bucket is getting rusty.

A new porch has been put up in front of the F. C. A. and I. X. L. stores.

The Jones & Kinkead assent is delinquent to-day.

For nice job work, and cheap, call at this office.

The sewer is nearly done to the river.

The Fishermen's Case.

On Tuesday next Judge Hillyer of the U. S. District Court, will pass sentence upon Leather, Sturgeon and the eight others, found guilty of violating the U. S. laws by trading and fishing on the Pyramid Lake Indian Reservation. In the case of Leathers the penalty is both fine and imprisonment. He will probably be sentenced to one hour's imprisonment and to pay a fine of $500. Sturgeon and the others can not get off with less than $1,000 fine, and if they can not pay it, will probably be sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment. But their attorney, Gen. Clark, thinks he can still beat the cases, and intends to take them up on a writ of error to Sawyer. If Sawyer affirms Hillyer's decision, which he is pretty sure to do, the boys will be in a worse fix than they are now, because then there will be no clemency shown, whereas we understand that by submitting now, U. S. District Attorney Varian, and likely Judge Hillyer too, will recommend their pardon, and while the Government would be sustained, they would not be severely punished.

Scarlet Fever.

This dreadful disease continues to lurk in this community, claiming victims here and there and occasionally taking down a family. Though not necessarily a fatal disease, there are conditions which make it unconquerable. Chief among these is filth. No corruption should be allowed around the premises; back alleys should be carefully cleaned; stagnant water should not be tolerated; wells should not be close to barnyards or water closets. If these sanitary steps are reinforced by plenty of bathing and sunshine, no fatal results need be feared from scarlet, yellow or other fevers—proper care being taken, of course. Reno is not a clean town. By that we mean that the cleanliness above alluded to is not universally observed. Back alleys and door yards are too often made the receptacles of all kinds of filth, where it is allowed to rot and breed all manner of pestilence. Fortunately the wind is a great scavenger, and does not permit the corrupted air to remain contaminated. A mutual dependence demands that we keep our surroundings clean. "Cleanliness is next to godliness."

Hose Cart Race.

It has been suggested that a hose cart race at the Fair Grounds during the coming State Fair would be a great attraction. Undoubtedly it would, and if a purse of $250 was put up teams from the Comstock and Carson would compete. We understand the matter has been taken in hand and money is being subscribed for the purse. We would like to see half a dozen hose carts come tearing down the homestead. The 48 boys think they can throw dust in front of any team in Nevada, and point to their record in the 400-yard race on the Fourth—1:33 1/2—and assert that they can make it in a minute. The hose cart race should come off.

The Agreed Case.

District Attorney Bowman has made up his side of the case against Sheriff Walker, Clerk Parish, Judge Bowker and Constable Avery, in accordance with the understanding between the county and the officers, so as to have judicial interpretation of many items in the fee bill. The officers are at work making out their answer, and the whole subject matter will be submitted to Judge King in a short time.

Sad Affliction.

A telegram from Wadsworth yesterday morning brought the sad news that our worthy County Commissioner, E. Olinghouse, had lost his daughter Hettie, who had fallen a victim to that dreadful disease, scarlet fever. Words are tame when the heart is wrung with anguish, but we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents in this their hour of trouble.

Government Timber.

There is a possibility of the Government soon commencing suits against all corporations and individuals in this State, who have been guilty of cutting timber, and have not made voluntary restitution of its value. It is alleged that the Government has been robbed of two or three millions of dollars in this manner.

"The Chinese Must Go."

There are nearly 1,000 Chinamen at work in Washoe county, and this is the cause of dull times and a scarcity of money in Reno, as anything. We don't get any benefit hardly from the money paid the sons of guns; and poor honest white men are deprived of employment because of the wretches. It is too bad.

Reno and Greenville.

Morrison & Copeland are running an accommodation line from Reno to Greenville, via Taylorville. It leaves Reno every Sunday morning, returning, arrives in Reno on Friday. Freight and small parcels carried. Fare to Greenville $2, to Taylorville $7.

Exchequer and Bullion have each levied an assessment of $1.50 per share.

"Newark in the Mines."

In the Newark (New Jersey) Daily Advertiser, of the 2d, we find the following item, which has a local significance:

Not only has Newark some large industries in the assaying and smelting of gold, silver, zinc, etc., but it has also acquired a reputation for furnace building. As heretofore briefly noted, a number of gentlemen interested in the Southern Nevada Mining Company met in this city on Monday to inspect an improved smelting furnace, just completed for the company by Cyrus Carrier & Son, of Railroad place. There was a good deal of mining and smelting experience present, including the Secretary, Mr. Lippman, some of the trustees, one of the principals of the firm of M. & Steinberger, bankers of New York and Boston, Mr. Carrier, who constructed the furnace, and L. Meyer & Co. the assayers, of No. 42 Mechanic street. It is understood that Mr. Charles F. Crossmire, junior partner of the latter firm, will put the furnace in practical operation.

The mines of the company are in Southern Nevada, and are already well developed. The assays made by L. Meyer & Co., of Newark, show in one specimen gold and silver of the average value of $265 to the ton, and in a second a value of $251 50. The State assayer of Boston reports a value of $191.45 to the ton; and Mr. Wiegand, assayer at Virginia City three assays of, each, $212.20, $217.20 and $166.40.

The point of interest to Newark is that our assayers and smelters have a high reputation in the mines and with investors, and our furnace builders are relied upon as the best in the country.

Wind Up.

The 4th of July Committee held a meeting last night and wound up their business. Out of the $765 collected, $85 50 was left, after paying all bills. Ten dollars was donated to the Bristol subscription, and the remainder was donated to the Agricultural Society.

YELLOW FEVER.

Memphis Again Afflicted With the Dread Disease.

MEMPHIS July 10.—A man died of yellow fever yesterday. He was buried to-night at 9 o'clock, and the premises where he died are being disinfected under the direction of the City Board of Health. The neighborhood where the death occurred turned out en masse to witness the burial. The exodus of citizens to-morrow will doubtless be great.

The Board of Health this morning issued the following order:

To the people of the City of Memphis: We would say, quietly remove your families to a place of safety until we can see whether the few cases of yellow fever existing will assume an epidemic form. To the people along the different routes of travel we say, there can be no possible danger of infection for many days to come.

Five new cases are reported this morning and one death, an infant of Judge C. R. Ray of their Criminal Court, who, together with another son, is prostrated with the disease. A perfect stampede of citizens is in progress, the trains being unable to carry away the hundreds who are ready to leave.

The negro exodus may carry considerable infectious baggage into Kansas and Missouri, and thus cause some cases of yellow fever in those States.

Dr. Hamilton, Supervising-Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service, does not apprehend a repetition of the yellow fever epidemic of last year in the South.

THE SON OF ABE LINCOLN AND STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

Several journals have noted the fact that the son of Abraham Lincoln and the son of Stephen A. Douglas are now both in Chicago practicing law, and it has been suggested that Illinois may at an early day witness another great struggle in which the names of Lincoln and Douglas will be most conspicuous, as was the case in 1858 and again in 1860. Those who have predicted such a battle evidently have little knowledge of the two young men who now represent the two greatest names known in the contest of Illinois. There will be no political battle between young Lincoln and young Douglas for several reasons.

In the first place, they are both Republicans, and therefore, not political antagonists. In the second place, young Douglas has been too much of a politician and young Lincoln too little of a politician to make it at all probable that either will approach the fame of his father as a political leader. Douglas was unfortunate in getting into politics as a carpet-bagger in North Carolina; was Speaker of the House during Holden's disgraceful administration, and he has an unwelcome flavor about him for the people of the West. Lincoln has much of his father's ability without his love for politics, and has studiously refrained from all prominence in political movements, and declined all offers of political advancement. Douglas has his father's taste for partisan battles but lacks both his aggressive ability and his devoted friends. Lincoln could rally the mass of those who revere his father's memory, but he wisely applies himself to his profession and rejects all ideas of political distinction. It is quite improbable, therefore, that the future political disputes of Lincoln and Douglas famous.

TELEGRAPHIC SPARKS!

China and Russia are at war.

Gravy will shortly pardon 1,468 political offenders.

Jerome Bonaparte has assumed the leadership of the Imperialists. Elaborate preparations are being made for the Prince Imperial's funeral on Saturday.

The great painting of the Electoral Commission has mysteriously disappeared from Washington.

Assessments on Bullion and Exchequer of $1 50 each, and on Goodslaw and Belvidere of 25 cents each.

James H. Bunker telegraphs to Wall Street that the Bodie mine is fully as good as reported, and adds dazzling details.

Permission has been refused Marshals McMahon, Conrobert and Leboeuf and Admiral Lagravere to attend the funeral of the Prince Imperial.

Grant says he will defer his return until after the Republican nomination for the Presidency is made. His change of movements has been brought about by accounts received of the officious intentions of some individuals who insisted themselves to his administration.

COMSTOCK MINING NOTES.

[Enterprise, July 10.]

The Union shaft, now being sunk from the 2300 level (2200 of the Sierra Nevada) will cut the vein in going a further distance of 100 feet; some say in less than 100 feet.

Sufficient Sierra Nevada ore is on hand at the Mariposa mill to keep the stamps going for a month. Long before the supply on hand is exhausted the extraction of ore will be resumed.

Stopping out ore in the Sierra Nevada will soon be resumed, as the flow of water on the 2200 level is fast decreasing. Good progress is being made with the station on the 2300 level, which is approaching completion. The water coming in on the 2200 level flows into large pits dug in the stopes, which serve the purpose of tanks. From these it is pumped up to the 1700 level.

The east crosscut on the 1350 level of the Alta and Benton shows twelve feet of rich ore and two feet of low grade, lying next the clay wall. At the 1350, 1550 and other levels below it is thought this body of ore will be found much richer as the present crosscut passes through its upper part. That it continues to the 1750 level is known, and very high assays have been obtained where the drift has cut into the edge of the vein.

The west crosscut on the 1550 level of the Justice mine had yesterday just cut through the clay wall into fine-looking quartz, but was not yet far enough in to reach the ore
